

Inspiring Passion, Purpose & Possibilities

When a door closes and one stage of our lives is complete, we are at an intersection, a threshold, a crossroads.

When a way of life closes, our old stories and identities are threatened, it feels like dying. Part of the stories is how we think of ourselves – ‘Oh, I don’t do that – I’m this. . . ‘

What if. . . you are no longer so sure you know who you are? We can cheat ourselves with a limited awareness of who we are.

So who are you? What decisions and driving forces have brought you to this moment in time? A key factor in finding this answer is to begin looking within. If your outside world no longer defines you, it’s time to look within. Explore the world of your Core Passion.

Your Core Passion drives every decision you make! Core Passion is what drives you to do what you do ~ what has always driven you. When you put words to these Core Passions, you are taking the intangible and making it tangible. By discovering, activating and claiming your unique Codes of Core Passion, you can transform your life, your relationships, and your career. Now you can begin to redefine yourself.

When you know who you are, you know what to do . . .

Lori Palm is a modern-day muse inspiring passion and possibilities. An entrepreneur for over 35 years, she sees the unseen business opportunities everywhere. In 1993 Lori founded Palm Productions, LLC, a company dedicated to personal and professional development for the 21st century. Connecting to her Core Passion and working in collaboration with her husband, Wes Hamilton, Lori created the on-line Core Passion Assessment Tool™.

Using her highly developed intuitive skills, Lori weaves the seen with the unseen to guide people and businesses in developing a plan for themselves and their future.

